Taiwan's Digital Resources and the Study of Chinese Religious Culture

- Paul R. Katz

Research fellow of Academia Sinica, Taiwan

- Monday, September 9, 2013 / 10:00 am-12:00 pm
- Columbia University in the City of New York
203 Butler Library

The goal of this lecture is to introduce the benefits of using Taiwan's digital resources in the study of Chinese religious culture. The lecture is divided into two parts. The first part introduces key websites and other resources at Academia Sinica and other academic institutions, including the National Digital Archives and Center for Geographic Information Science. In the second part, Dr. Katz will demonstrate how he has used some of these resources in his researches of Chinese religious culture.
