

Report of 2013 Overseas Koreanology Librarians Workshop

CKM CEAL2014

March 27, 2014

Julie Wang

Binghamton University Library

Macy Zheng

McGill University Library

Overview of the Workshop

- Hosted by the National Library of Korea from October 13 -19, 2013, at the National Library of Korea in Seoul.

Librarians from Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Japan, New Zealand, Philippines, Spain, Thailand, United States of America.

Welcome ceremony

Orientation session

Lectures

Field trips

Presentations

Activities at the workshop

Lectures at the workshop

- New trends in the National Library of Korea and its responding strategies
- Copyright for libraries: Korean experiences
- Reference sources for Korean Studies
Understanding of North Korea
- Traditional Korean sources

More Lectures

- A Study of Korean Diplomatic Archives
- Status of digitizing Korean historical materials
- Korean historical materials collected from North America and European countries
- Korean Historical Materials

Visit Korean Libraries

Chongdong
Theatre

Korean
Food

National Museum of Korean Contemporary History

Daily
Life

Presentors

Hwang Kyu Won, The Univ. of Auckland, New Zealand

Abe Kentaro, National Diet Library of Japan

Jasmin Kreutzberg, Free Univ. Berlin, Germany

Adrianus Van der Werf, Univ. of Leuven, Belgium

Ramon Aranda Quintana, Univ. of Malaga, Spain

Supanee Sukarbjai, the National Library of Thailand

Sharisse Rae Lim, National Library of the Philippines

Mi-sug No, College de France

Timotheus Kim, Tuebingen University, Germany

Eunseung Oh, Stanford University

Sang Hun Cho, UC Los Angeles

Miree Ku, Duke University

Mikyung Kang, Harvard

Baek Heh-young, Univ. of Michigan, Ann Arbor

Julie Wang, Binghamton Univ. SUNY

Macy Zheng, McGill University

Young Eun Park, Chicago Public Library

Hyun Chu Kim, Kennesaw State University

Benefits from the workshop

- Acquired the latest information on Korean librarianship.
- Understood Korean culture in a deeper way
- Enhanced our knowledge of Korean culture and civilization.
- Established a connection with Korean National Library
- Had the chance to meet Korean Studies librarians from all over the world and exchange information to each other in the future.

National Library of Korea, thank you!

