

2008 CEAL Talking With Experienced Librarians Round Table Program

Time: Wednesday, April 2, 7:30 PM-9:00 PM

Location: Hyatt Regency Atlanta, Techwood Room

Facilitator: Jade Atwill (Chair, CEAL Committee on Membership)

The CEAL Committee on Membership proudly presents three “Talking with Experienced Librarians Round Table” sessions open to all CEAL members and interested individuals during the 2007 CEAL/AAS annual conference:

1. Getting Help – New East Asian Librarians in a New Changing Environment.
Hosted by Hsi-chu Bolick (bolick@email.unc.edu), University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill,
Hikaru Nokano (hiknaka@uflib.ufl.edu), University of Florida,
Donghee Sinn (dosst22+@pitt.edu), University of Pittsburgh
2. Initiating and Managing Projects in Academic Libraries – Gaining Support and Funding from Administrators and Staff.
Hosted by Su Chen (suchen@umn.edu), University of Minnesota,
Yunshan Ye (yey@dickinson.edu), Dickinson College Library
3. Tips and Tricks on Outreach – The Best Ways to Connect to Users and How to Organize Major Library Outreach Events and Projects.
Hosted by Jim Cheng (jicheng@ucsd.edu), University of California, San Diego,
Robert Britt (rrbritt@u.washington.edu), University of Washington

These simultaneous sessions are informal, interactive exchange of ideas and experiences among participants on issues of interest to East Asian librarians. We welcome and encourage pre-meeting questions to be sent to the related hosts or Jade Atwill (yya2@psu.edu).
