

Back to CPS

2016 Program of Committee on Public Services

Thursday, March 31, 2016

9:00 AM – 10:00 AM

Sheraton Hotel, Seattle, WA

Room: Ravenna

East Asian Studies Librarians: Current Realities/Future Trajectories

9:00 - 9:10 AM

Welcome, Reflections on pre-conference workshop

9:10 - 9:30 AM

Four lightning talks from the front lines of public services

1. “Giving In or Making It Work for Your Users?: What Happens When Extensive Reading Meets the Library”

[\(Presentation \[PDF\]\)](#)

Sharon Domier, librarian, University of Massachusetts Amherst

2. “Is This the Straw That Breaks the Librarian’s Back? Finding a Way to Survive and Thrive in a Very Challenging Environment”

[\(Presentation \[PDF\]\)](#)

Ping Situ, Associate Librarian, University of Arizona

3. “Data Management: It Needs to be Part of Your Job Duties”

[\(Presentation \[PDF\]\)](#)

Yao Chen, East Asian Studies Librarian, University of Minnesota

4. “Building an Undergraduate Clientele One Workshop at a Time”

[\(Presentation \[PDF\]\)](#)

Adam Lisbon, Japanese Studies Librarian, University of Colorado Boulder

9:30 - 9:50 AM

Committee Member Panel Discussion on Current Realities/Future Trajectories

Hye-jin Juhn, Assistant Librarian, University of Notre Dame

[\(Presentation \[PDF\]\)](#)

Tang Li, Public Services Librarian, Yale University

[\(Presentation \[PDF\]\)](#)

9:50 - 10:00 AM

Comments from the floor