

2018 Poster Session of Committee on Public Services

Wednesday, March 21, 2018

3:55 PM – 5:00 PM

Washington Marriott Wardman Park

Room: Roosevelt Room 1 & 2

1. Outreaching: A Critical Junction of East Asian Studies Librarians and Academic Programs

Xi Chen and Hyo Jin Moon, University of California San Diego

2. Computerized Text Analysis in East Asian Studies

Xiang Li, University of Colorado Boulder

Yao Chen, University of Minnesota

3. Collaboratively Making More CJK E-resources Discoverable and Shareable

Charlene Chou, University of Washington

Bie-hwa Ma, University of California San Diego

4. Collecting East Asian Archives in Southern California

Rebecca Corbett, Joy Kim, Kenneth Klein, and Tang Li, University of Southern California

5. From Reading to Producing Books: Extensive Reading Activities in the Academic Library

Sharon Domier, Yuki Yoshimura, Hisako Kobayashi, University of Massachusetts

6. Creating Digital Exhibit by Collaboration with Japanese Studies Faculty

Charles Exley, Gabrielle Queen Lee, Alexander Lee Sanford, and Hiroyuki N. Good,
University of Pittsburgh

7. Collaborative Efforts to Expand the Japanese Buddhism Collection at UVA

Rong Fu, University of Virginia

8. How East Asian Technical Services Librarians Can Support Digital Humanities Project

Haiqin Lin and Naomi Shiraishi, University of California Berkeley

9. Exploring and Inspiring through Library Treasures: An Educational Initiative at Asia Collection, UHM Library

Dongyun Ni and Tokiko Y. Bazzell, University of Hawaii

10. New Chinese Geographic Names Resources

Stella Tang, University of California Berkeley

11. Introduction of Individual Chinese Digital Resources

Anlin Yang, University of Iowa

12. Digitizing Japanese Rare Books from 18th-19th Centuries

Reiko Yoshimura, Smithsonian