

Challenges and Opportunities of East Asian Libraries/Librarians in Digital Scholarship

Afternoon Plenary: Librarians Forum

CEAL Denver

2019

5 PRESENTERS

Azusa Tanaka, Japanese Studies Librarian, University of Washington

Digital Scholarship Challenges and Opportunities: “A” Selector’s Perspective

Haiqing Lin, Head of Technical Services, UC Berkeley

From Humanities Data to Digital Humanities Data: A New Opportunity for Technical services

Hyokyoung Yi, Head of Public Services and Korean Studies Librarian, University of Washington

Data Visualization Using Cataloging Metadata

Kathi Matsuura, Japanese Digital Scholarship Librarian, Harvard University

Where Do Boundaries Begin and End for a Digital Library/Librarian?

Ying Zhang, Research Librarian for Asian Studies, UC Irvine

Librarians’ New Roles in Digital Scholarship: Cases and Concepts

4 TOP ISSUES

Building Partnerships

Dealing with Skills Gap

Working out Strategies for Conflicts and Negotiations

Configuring support from CEAL

DISCUSSANT and MODERATOR

Professor Kiyonori Nagasaki, Senior Fellow, International Institute for Digital Humanities; Lecturer, University of Tokyo; Visiting Associate Professor, International Research Institute for Japanese Studies; Chair, Japanese Association for Digital Humanities

Hyoungbae Lee, Korean Studies Librarian, Princeton University